

My kids and I love K-Love and listen to it daily. It is family friendly and I don't have to worry about the boys listening to it at any time of day. Without it I would have to constantly be monitoring what they are listening to and taking the chance of them hearing something that I don't approve of. This would be devastating to our family and others as it is the station we listen to 99 % of the time.